WOULD ENJOIN STATE BOARD

APPROPRIATION OF $450,000 FOR THE DESCHUTES RECLAMA-TION SCHEME IS SUBJECT OF
THE ACTION

SALEM, June 5.—Contending that a bill passed by the state legislature appropriating $450,000 for the reclamation of arid lands in the Columbia Southern project is unconstitutional, L. H. McMahan, a lawyer and politician, has filed a suit in the circuit court here asking that Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay be enjoined from expending the appropriation made by the measure.
McMahan alleges that he is the owner of valuable properties in the valley, and brings the suit on his own behalf as a taxpayer, and on behalf of other taxpayers in the state. He contends that the bill making the appropriation for the project is a special law for the benefit of a few persons, and in violation of that section of the constitution which says that no local or special laws shall be enacted by the legislature.

Several years ago he succeeded in enjoining the secretary of state and the state treasurer from paying out $100,000 which had been appropriated by the legislature for the construction of a road near Crater Lake, and the suit instituted today follows closely the principles involved in that case.

"The state has no right to tax my property or the property of any other taxpayer to improve the property of any other man, or to make a farm out of arid lands for the benefit of any citizen," said McMahan, in discussing the suit.

PHILADELPHIA IS THERE IN BOTH

PHILLIES IN THE NATIONAL AND ATHLETICS IN THE AMERICAN ARE BOTH UP AND DOING EV-ERY MINUTE

BY HAL SHERIDAN

(Written for the United Press)..
NEW YORK, June 5.—If all the wild happenings of May—during which the Giants went rolling and tumbling into the second division, Brooklyn fairly set the league on fire and hung tight to the flying Phillies only to slow down later, and the Pittsburgh Pirates graced the second set-—if these and other surprises were rolled into one big gob of fireworks, they shouldn't amount to as much as a penny firecracker if June runs true to the season's series of surprises in the National League.

Taken as a whole, the league seems to be too evenly balanced to permit a blaze through the circuit that would carry any one of the favored far enough in the next few weeks to clinch the flag. The Phillies, long jinx-ridden, this season have shown as much claim to pennant consideration as the next one, and contenders can't loiter until they turn into the stretch and then expect to get away with it. If the Giants and Pirates get under full steam, and the Phillies continue to hold up, look out for the packing of four teams in the first division like sardines in a box.

It is a long, weary journey from June until October, and as some sage remarked "without fear of successful contradiction," that Rome was not built in a day, so it may be said with equal safety that pennants are not won in a day or a week or a month for that matter. Philadelphia, New York and Pittsburgh appear to be the best bets for the ultimate National League leaders. Philadelphia has been going great guns, the Pirates have been trying hard, and with the exception of several unfortunate accidents to members have shown class that is dangerous to the aspirations of other teams. With the Giants there has been something lacking that it isn't too late yet to get—the ferocious fighting fever that returned McGraw a winner twice in succession.
They have occasionally slashed and torn at their opponents, but it has been a wild slashing and tearing, not the systematic, calculating attack of two and three years ago.

Outside of Mathewson the pitching department of the Giants during May fell way below all expectations. Mar-quard has been a complete fizzle, and Toscani has been an in-and-out-er.
Also the batting of the team slumped.
All of which, Mawruss, is enough already.

Taking it throughout, however, it hasn't been so much that last year's league champions are weaker, as it has been that the clubs they are playing this year are better clubs than the ones they played during the same period of last year. The Cardinals and the Brooklyn especially are stronger. Pittsburgh is not as much stronger as it was cracked up to be, but the Pirates certainly have played better ball so far in 1912 than they played up to the same time in 1911.
The question finally resolves itself into how big a lead either the Giants or the Pirates are going to let the Phillies grab off before they come to their senses and get together.

Unless the prophesied braces and breakers come soon, however, it will be up to the federal department of justice at Washington to keep an eye on the City of Brotherly Love. To owners and managers of fourteen major league baseball clubs, if not to the authorities at Washington, it is as plain as noses on faces that an individual named Cornelius McGillicuddy, alias Connie Mack, and a certain party named Charlie Doolin, are openly and avowedly, with malice forethought, planning a trust that will unreasonably hold every atom of attention in the country along in October. Those on the inside say the trust will be known as the World's Series Trust, and that Connie Mack and Charlie Doolin already are counting how they'll spend the money.

For be it admitted that he Athletics this year are the Athletics of two years ago. They are swinging strong, and look like winners—at this time. The Cleveland Naps might threaten them, but they'll have to do lots better to beat them out. Washington might cut a real figure if they had two or three Walter Johnsons in the line-up, but as far as Clark Griffith has been able to learn, there are not any more like Johnson at home, and Johnson can't work every day.

The Nationals are doing well, and credit is due to them, but on non-Johnson days they aren't up to pennant form.

LOCALS PLAY AT HILDEBRAND

CHICKEN SUPPER AND DANCE WILL BE GIVEN ON THE NIGHT
PRECEDING THE BASEBALL
GAME

The next game to be played by the Klamath Falls baseball team will be at Hildebrand, near Dairy, on the afternoon of Sunday, June 15. The local players will go there late Saturday afternoon.

Saturday evening the Klamath Falls players will be the guests of honor at a big dance to be given in Hildebrand hall. This is to be followed by a chicken supper.

Hildebrand people say their community is represented by a remarkably fast aggregation of ball players.
They are looking for a fast game when the two teams meet.

POLO MATCHES WILL BE WARM

AMERICAN TEAM WILL HAVE TO GO SOME IN ORDER TO RETAIN THE WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP IN COMING GAMES

Some real, bang-up sport will be staged within the next week when the English and American polo teams come together in their series for the international championship. When the Englishmen were defeated two years ago, it was all laid to the ponies, which were, in fact, inferior to the winners' mounts. In the practice games the ponies brought over this year by the challengers have shown stamina and intelligence, and there are enough of them to permit frequent changes. There are forty-two of them; almost as many as the American team will have at its disposal. All things considered, the games this year will be better to watch than they were last year, and the Americans will have to go some to win.

TERM IN PRISON, BUT HE WILL BE A SPORT

United Press Service
CHICAGO, June 5.—Jack Johnson expressed himself as confident that some loophole will be found for him to escape serving the sentence imposed on him. He added "I'm not there yet. Anyway, a year is not so bad. If it comes to the point where I have to go, I'll be a good sport and take what is handed to me. Jack Johnson was built for rough work."

TOWN TOPICS

Good Scenic Effects.—A real log cabin, real pine trees and other natural "props" are being used by the McNaughton Brothers to make the scene settings as realistic as possible Friday and Saturday nights, when they stage the three act drama, "The Wolf," under the auspices of Kwauna Camp, Woodmen of the World. In addition to the McNaughtons, Miss Marjorie McClure, Joe B. McAllister, Jerry Darrell and Harry P. Mesner are taking part in the production, and all are ready letter perfect in their lines. Specialties will be introduced both evenings, and a dance will follow the play Saturday night.

To Discuss the State.—The third of a series of special sermons will be held at Grace M. E. church Sunday evening, when the pastor, Rev. Geo.
H. Feese, will discuss the import of the mottoes of the different states of the Union. Reservations of certain seats will be made for the people of one state, and as they enter the church the people will be conducted to the place allotted to their home states. A social reception will follow the service.

Return From Chilcoquin.—A. P.
Lipp of Marysville and L. O. Arens and P. A. Tipton returned to Klamath Falls late last night from Chilcoquin and vicinity, where they called on the Installing Switchboard.—Installation of the switchboard for the Automatic call system at the Hotel Hall has been started. In addition to calls and fire alarm, the new system also has telephone service in connection.

and West End groceries, operated by J. L. Quillitch, are being moved from their former locations to the Bristol building, near the postoffice, where they will be united.

and wife are due this afternoon from Bakersfield, after an absence of a year. Mr. Smith has again accepted a position with the engineering department of the reclamation service, and intends to remain in Klamath Falls permanently.

his departure for Grants Pass Wednesday, Circuit Judge Benson signed a decree granting Addie Morine a divorce from George Morine.

tion are holding a meeting this after-

Good Blood Means Good Health

A clear, healthy skin, full of life and color, reflecting perfect health and energy, has long been known to be a business and social asset.

If you are not the fortunate possessor of all the above—if you are suffering from skin eruptions of any description, it means that the blood is weak.

WHEN IT BECOMES IMPOVERISHED—THIN AND WATERY—IT CANNOT SUPPLY PROPER NOURISHMENT, AND THE BODY TISSUES BECOME DISEASED.

This condition is every ready to manifest itself, and should be checked and treatment started with the first appearance of blood disorder.

In our estimation Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy is the one best treatment. It gets at the root of the trouble, cleanses the blood impurities, increases the circulation, produces blood that is rich in nourishment—blood that is rich in nourishment—blood that will build up broken-down tissues.
